

Discover Chicago and its history through beer with Chicago Beer Experience Beer Tours!

Looking for something entertaining to do in Chicago? Our highly-rated beer tours provide the perfect activity where you'll have fun and learn about Chicago in a unique, interesting way! We feature three distinctive historical beer tasting tours in different parts of the city: Bacon & Brewing in Lakeview & Lincoln Park, Pioneers & Pints in Bucktown & Wicker Park, and Sin & Suds in the Loop & South Loop.

On our beer tours, your group of up to 18 people will be led by a trained guide and will:

- Walk and enjoy Chicago neighborhoods, easily accessible via public transportation.
- Learn about Chicago history, especially as it relates to beer, all the way from 1673 to present day.
- Explore the basics of different beer styles and how beer is made.
- Taste several different beers, about 4 regular beers in total, many of which are local Chicago or Midwestern craft beers.

Our tours are 3 hours long and generally cost $62 per person (+$3 Sat), plus 15% gratuity for corporate or other private groups. $35 tickets are available for non-drinkers (+$1 Sat). We have also recently incorporated brunch in our Sunday tours at a cost of $77 per person ($44 for non-drinkers). Please see the beer tour specifications on the following page and visit our website at www.chicagobeerexperience.com for more information.

Our public tours are typically available Fridays through Sundays and can be booked online on our website (www.chicagobeerexperience.com) or you can call EzTix at (312) 818-2172. For private groups of six or more people, we are available 7 days a week, subject to availability. For inquiries, email us at info@chicagobeerexperience.com or call us at (773) 770-5318.

We have toured with over 10,000 tourists since 2011, and we would love to have you too! Discover Chicago and its history through beer with us.
